OUR GOALS

Connect libraries with informal family, friend, & neighbor (FFN) caregivers in communities across Colorado.

Grow FFN caregivers' skills, confidence, & resources to provide early literacy & learning opportunities through library services.

Cultivate professional networks, resources, and support to provide state-wide early literacy opportunities for FFN caregivers.

PLAY, LEARN, & GROW WORKSHOPS VIRTUAL EVENTS AVAILABLE FOR 2020 (AND BEYOND)!

Our team hosts events for informal (FFN) caregivers in your community

Take-home literacy and learning kits for participants

Professional development for library staff.

BE A PART OF GROWING READERS TOGETHER

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Quick Bites Webinars: Check out these 20-minute micro-learning opportunities focused on a variety of topics in early learning, library service, and caregiver connections. Join us Live Tuesdays @ 12. Offered Quarterly: Aug / Nov / Feb / May

Check out the Archives: <https://tinyurl.com/grtquickbites>

Outreach Success Cycle: Ready to connect with informal caregivers? Engage your library in this 4-part virtual training that explores how to use the Outreach Success Cycle to identify, engage and serve FFNs in your community.

Play, Learn & Grow for Staff: When we read, write, talk, sing, and play, children thrive! Leverage these five practices to expand learning opportunities in your library and encourage caregivers to practice at home.
