

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Colorado continues to experience a high dropout rate, inequalities in the academic achievement levels of students from different racial and socioeconomic groups, and low rates of enrollment and persistence in post-secondary education; and

WHEREAS, in order to address these issues, the state is actively seeking new strategies for improving public education; and

WHEREAS, studies show that when parents, families, and schools collaborate effectively, students achieve higher levels of academic performance, demonstrate better attendance and homework completion, and are less likely to drop out of school; and

WHEREAS, students from all cultural backgrounds tend to perform better academically when their parents, families, and the professionals at their schools bridge the gap between the culture at home and the classroom; and

WHEREAS, students benefit from active involvement by well-informed and engaged parents and families in their life and education; and

WHEREAS, Colorado is working to increase graduation rates, academic achievement levels of all students, and raise rates of enrollment and persistence in secondary and post-secondary education;

THEREFORE, I, Jared Polis, Governor of the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim the month of November 2023, as in the State of Colorado.

FAMILY AND SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP IN EDUCATION MONTH

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado, this first day of November, 2023
