3f. If applicable, what type of accommodations are provided to ensure that English Learners and/or Students with Disabilities can fully access the content represented by the task or set of items reviewed? Provide an explanation of your response.
Accommodations are commonly categorized in five ways: presentation, response, setting, and timing and scheduling: o Presentation Accommodations —Allow students to access information in ways that do not require them to visually read standard print. These alternate modes of access are auditory, multi-sensory, tactile, and visual. o Response Accommodations —Allow students to complete activities, assignments, and assessments in different ways or to solve or organize problems using some type of assistive device or organizer. o Setting Accommodations —Change the location in which a test or assignment is given or the conditions of the assessment setting. o Timing and Scheduling Accommodations —Increase the allowable length of time to complete an assessment or assignment and perhaps change the way the time is organized. o Linguistic Accommodations— Allow English language learners (ELLs) to access academic construct measured by reducing the linguistic load of an assessment. The accommodation is based on an ELL's limited English language proficiency, which is different than an accommodation based on a student's disability or a cognitive need.*
3g: Are there adequate accommodations permitted for this assessment? Provide an explanation of your response: None are identified.	Yes, Some identified=2; None identified =1

(the areas below should also be discussed relative to the needs of ELLs, gifted and talented students, and students with disabilities)
4a. Does this assessment engage a student in thinking that connects to a real world, new context, situation, problem or challenge? Provide an explanation of your response: Scenarios will reflect real world situations, and conflict resolution and decision making are real world responses to problems and challenges.	High=3; Moderate=2; Low or None=1
Engagement Rating	3
4b. To what extent do you think the knowledge and skills tested by the assessment can provide good information about what students have learned in the classroom? Provide an explanation of your response: Students are asked to use the knowledge they have leaned in the classroom and apply it in a role playing situation. This task can indicate to what extent students have learned information and their ability to transfer and use that information.	High=3; Moderate=2; Low or None=1
Classroom Learning Rating	3
4c. To what degree do the results from this assessment (scores and student work analysis) foster meaningful dialogue about learning expectations and outcomes with students and parents? Provide an explanation of your response: Rubric and scenarios could be used as evidence to support meaningful dialogue. Adding a video clip of the role play would improve this further.	High=3; Moderate=2; Low or None=1
Learning Expectations/Outcomes Rating	2
4d. To what extent do you believe the assessment can clearly communicate expectations for academic excellence (e.g., creativity, transference to other content areas or 21st Century skills) to students? Provide an explanation of your response: Assessment asks for a high level of creativity and transference in creating the scenarios and role-playing them, along with the conflict resolution and decision making skills explicitly demonstrated.	High=3; Moderate=2; Low or None=1
Communicate Academic Excellence Rating	3
4e. Based on the content evaluated by the task or the set of items reviewed, to what extent do you think teachers can use the results (scores and student work analysis) to understand what competency on standard/s look like? Provide an explanation of your response: If the rubric is of high quality, then the results can be used by teachers to understand competency on this particular GLE.	High=3; Moderate=2; Low or None=1
Competency on Standards Rating	2
4f: Based on the content evaluated by the task or the set of items reviewed, to what extent do you think teachers can identify what purpose the assessment serves (e.g. diagnostic, report card grades, adjusting instruction, etc.)? Provide an explanation of your response: Because the assessment is at the synthesizing and demonstrating level, it is clearly a summative assessment of a key skill set.	High=3; Moderate=2; Low or None=1
