This assessment is a match DOK 2 for cause and effect, summarizing, and organizing, presenting, and interpreting information/data could be strengthened.
Full match – task or most items address or exceed the relevant skills and knowledge described in the corresponding state standard/s.
Partial match – task or most items partially address the skills and knowledge described in the corresponding state standard/s.
No match – task or most items are not related to the skills and knowledge described in the corresponding state standard/s.

3e. If applicable, what type of accommodations should be considered to ensure that students with special needs can fully access the content represented by the task or set of items reviewed?
Accommodations are commonly categorized in five ways: presentation, response, setting, and timing and scheduling: • Presentation Accommodations — Allow students to access information in ways that do not require them to visually read standard print. These alternate modes of access are auditory, multi-sensory, tactile, and visual.
 Response Accommodations — Allow students to complete activities, assignments, and assessments in different ways or to solve or organize problems using some type of assistive device or organizer. Setting Accommodations — Change the location in which a test or assignment is given or the conditions of the assessment setting. Timing and Scheduling Accommodations — Increase the allowable length of time is organized.

Linguistic Accommodations — Allow English language learners (ELLs) to access academic construct measured by reducing the linguistic load of an assessment. The accommodation is based on an ELL's limited English language proficiency, which is different than an accommodation based on a student's disability or a cognitive need.
