Proficiency Goal

Scenario 1

You and a friend are competing to collect the most friends from Spanish-speaking countries on a social networking site like Facebook. To help catch the attention of more friends, you decide to create a personal profile in Spanish.

You will want to include the following:

- activities you like or don't like to do;
- why you like/dislike the activities;
- when you do the activities;
- with whom you do the activities.

To impress your "new" friends you may want to tell them anything else you know how to say about yourself already in Spanish!
