Internet Protection in Public Libraries PART 6 24-90-600 et seq.	Rough, non-legal summary of the statute: Internet Protection in Public Libraries *
24-90-601. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that use of the internet in the public libraries of the state provides an extraordinary, unique, and unparalleled educational resource and source of knowledge and information. The general assembly further finds and declares that reasonable measures must be adopted and implemented to protect the children who use such internet services in public libraries from access to material that is harmful to their beneficial development as responsible adults and citizens. It is the intent of the general assembly by enacting this part 6 that public libraries be required to adopt and enforce reasonable policies of internet safety that are consistent with the federal "children's internet protection act", as amended, (P.L. No. 106-554), and that will protect children from access to harmful material without compromising responsible adult use of Internet services in such libraries.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The legislature acknowledges the value of internet access, but wants libraries to have policies that ensure protection of minors without infringing on adult's rights to information.
